SPREAD CHEER...BUY GIFTS!

There's truly no place like home for the Holidays, and that makes the usual magic of the season feel a little dimmer for those still hoping for a place to call home. You can spread some joy this year by helping UMD check off some wishes from clients this year. Wishlists are available here: Amazon and Walmart. We are also accepting gift cards from Amazon, Walmart, and Target to purchase requested toys and goodies for single adults and families residing with us at Liberty Street and other locations. Your gifts will be packaged by our little elves and delivered to your neighbors in time for Christmas! Deliver by Monday, December 14th.
